The MEN'S GLEE CLUB is the most active of the Naval Academy's musical organizations and has achieved national prominence as one of America's premier men's choral ensembles. Recent appearances on network television include The Kennedy Center Honors, The Today Show, the Early Show, Christmas in Washington, and Good Morning, America. The ensemble has performed in Carnegie Hall, San Diego's Copley Symphony Hall, St. Peters in the Vatican, and cathedrals in Brussels, Winchester and St. Paul's in London. The group has performed on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial for a live audience of over half a million and at the dedication ceremony of the National Pentagon Memorial, the Ronald Reagan Freedom Award, the Commissioning of the George H.W. Bush Aircraft Carrier (CVN-77). It is with honor, pride and distinction that the Men's Glee Club represents the United States, the Navy and Marine Corps, and the Naval Academy.
